

Footsteps of Ministry and Service: Experiencing the Holy Places of Galilee

Join us as we focus on Jesus' ministry in Galilee. Joanne will take us through the locations where Jesus taught, healed, and served and we will begin to learn how we can do the same for those in our world.

Date: January 14-15, 2011
Friday at 7 pm-Saturday at 5pm

Where: Courtyard by Marriott in
Oakbrook Terrace

Footsteps of Forgiveness and Sacrifice: Experiencing the Holy Places of Jerusalem

This retreat invites us to focus on Jesus' suffering and death. During this holy season of Lent, Joanne will take us through the city of Jerusalem, and we will reflect on the way of the cross and how we as a Christian people can forgive those who hurt us and sacrifice for other just as Jesus did.

Date: March 25-26, 2011
Friday at 7pm- Saturday at 5pm

Where: Courtyard by Marriott in
Naperville

Footsteps of Prayer and Tradition: Experiencing the Holy Places of the Hebrew Scriptures

In this retreat we will focus on Jesus' faith tradition, and the sacred places of the Hebrew Scriptures where Jesus traveled, prayed, and reflected. As we honor this heritage, let us look to our future rooted in the traditions of Judaism.

Date: October 21-22, 2011
Friday at 7pm- Saturday at 5pm

Where: Courtyard by Marriott in
Naperville

These innovative retreats will be led by Dr. Joanne Kuttner. Dr. Kuttner is a professor of Theology at Lewis University and a graduate of Catholic Theological Union in Chicago. Joanne served as Director of Youth Ministry at Sts. Peter and Paul Parish in Naperville, IL for many years. She has traveled twice to the Holy Land and is excited to share what she calls, "The Fifth Gospel" with us.
