Over 2,000 years ago, Jesus offered us new wine contained in new wineskins. Have we allowed ourselves to savor this new wine, held in new wineskins? Or, has this wine been lost to us, because it had been offered to us in old wineskins?

Join us as we savor the new wine Jesus offers, as well as the new wineskins which hold it.

The wineskins are as significant as the wine itself! This truth has often been overlooked. The transformative influence of this new wine and wineskins are as radical for us as contemporary Christian men as they were when Jesus first offered and lived them.

There will be time for private reflection and group discussion.

Your presenter is Fr. Tom Borkowski.

Fr. Tom currently serves as Chaplain and Director of Faith Development for The Wheaton Franciscan Sisters, Wheaton, Illinois. In addition, he is an adjunct staff member of Mayslake Ministries in Lombard, IL.

Fr. Tom is an experienced retreat presenter, spiritual director and adult faith formation director. He has also done extensive parish work. His seamless style of blending "life" with "faith" has made him greatly sought after as a presenter.

He obtained his M.Div. from Pontifical College Josephinum, Columbus, Ohio plus his Certificate from Shalem Institute for Spiritual Formation. Fr. Tom received his M.Ed. in Special Education from the University of Missouri, Columbia. His areas of specialty include work in co-dependency, recovery and Carmelite Spirituality.

The Well is located at the Congregation of St. Joseph Center in LaGrange Park. You will enjoy a private room, and grounds that wind into a wooded area for peaceful and quiet time to think - and to enjoy God's gift of nature.
