Marriage Workshop

“Arriving at Consensus Without Compromising.”

March 3, 2012

9:00am - 12:30pm

Mayslake Ministries in Lombard

Couples are invited to experience a marriage workshop that will explore marriage from a Catholic perspective based on sacramental theology and a bestselling marriage enhancement book entitled, “Fighting for your Marriage.”

We will learn ways to negotiate, problem solve, and discuss topics including household budget, spending, changing roles, balancing time, sex, and increasing romance and intimacy in our relationships. Discover new insights that can make your marriage more fulfilling and satisfying.

About your facilitator

Dr. Barbara Jarvis-Pauls ... a Pastoral Counselor and Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor, received her Master in Counseling Psychology from Lewis University and her Doctorate of Ministry in Pastoral Counseling from Graduate Theological Foundation. Barb provides individual, marital, and family counseling. She is experienced in working with individuals and families in transition or crisis who are coping with issues of death, divorce, single parenting, remarriage or blended families and annulment advocacy. Dr. Jarvis-Pauls is a member of the National Association of Catholic Family Life Ministers, Illinois Counseling Association, Illinois Mental Health Association, and the American Association of Pastoral Counselors. She completed the Internal Family Systems Therapy Certification Program.
