

A Silent Retreat for Men

Retreat dates:

January 13-15, 2012; March 30 - April 1, 2012

Cardinal Stritch Retreat House, 1300 Stritch Dr, Mundelein, IL

“Jesus in Story”
Revelations about Jesus in stories about him, and in stories that he told.

We know Jesus best through the pages of sacred scripture: the writings of the evangelists and the parable stories told by Jesus. Join us on retreat as Fr. Jonathan Foster, OFM and Chris Grano present a selection of these stories in the context of prayer and scripture. Time will be given for exploration and reflection of these stories.

La Vocazione di san Matteo
The calling of St. Matthew

One of Fr. Jonathan's favorite paintings will be referenced during the retreat.

What is a Retreat?

A retreat is time away from the busy routine of daily activities in order to spend prayerful time in quiet reflection. We offer several types of retreat experiences: silent retreat, guided retreats, and discussion retreats.

What will be expected of me on retreat?

While it is our hope that each individual will want to participate in the prepared spiritual talks, prayer services, and group discussions, this is your time away and you are free to spend your retreat time as you desire. Participation in any retreat activity is at the sole discretion of the attendee.
