Counselors and Leaders*

"Grief as a Pathway to Healing: Integrating Spirituality in the Process"

Saturday, February 11, 2012

9am - 12:30pm

Mayslake Ministries in Lombard

Clergy, pastoral counselors and lay ministers are aware of the complicated issues faced by individuals and families today to which they respond with grief. In addition to the loss of a loved one, personal losses such as unemployment, threatened security, and financial, marital, and parental stress often present as adjustment disorders. This workshop will help equip those who work with the grieving with new and valuable information.

Workshop Goals

As a result of this workshop, participants will:

- Review of grief process, theorists. Differentiating normal, complicated grief from pathology.
- Creative approaches for counselors, ministers, to integrate spirituality, faith and religious practices into intervention and treatment.
- Complicated Cases will be discussed and pastoral resources recommended.
